Message from Pastor Dave Nerdig

Today bypass the drink (I know, I know I'm supposed to say something about Pumpkin Spice here but I'll do that next month). I want to talk with you about prayer.

I've discovered a simple technique that I sometimes use when I'm feeling anxious. It's called Box Breathing or Four-square breathing. It's simple. You exhale to a count of four. Hold your breath for a count of four. Inhale for a count of four. Hold your breath for a count of four. Start all over again. (Don't worry, we won't be substituting this for the Lord's Prayer on Sunday and I'm not using it as a gateway rite to Hinduism or to increase the sale of sandalwood incense. I just want you to think about breath).

Think about breathing for a moment. When we inhale, we are literally taking a part of the world around us, inside of us. We breathe in air and our magnificently created lungs move oxygen from the air into our blood stream. When we exhale, these fleshly miracles push a waste gas called carbon dioxide out into the atmosphere. We do this twelve to twenty times a minute, 17,280 to 28,800 times a day. If we stop doing it for just three to four minutes we die. There has been oxygen in our atmosphere for 2.8 billion years. Humans have been breathing it for 2.5 million years (with due respect to "young earthers" I don't believe the Bible supports a six-thousand-year-old earth). This intimate, life-giving, process is part of who we are and how we exist. All persons on the face of this earth breathe the same air, intimately, sharing the breath of life, moving from one set of lungs to another, over and over again. Forgive the intentional pun but reflecting on this almost "takes my breath away."

Now back to prayer. As Christians we believe that the Spirit of God dwells within us, between us and among us. We believe that the Spirit of God gives us life. Just as we share the same air, we share one Spirit. This Spirit, this breath of God, intercedes for us breathing out prayers for us even when we can't understand what it is we truly need. We join our hearts together to sigh out our shared longing for the church, all of God's creation, and all those in need. Just as our body expels rubbish from our lungs in prayers of confession, we exhale prayers of confession to cleanse us from the garbage of our sin and to empower us for ministry. It is an unbounding grace that God invites us into this intimate process we call prayer, that God breathes life into us collectively and individually and moves us to share that breath with each other and the world.

The next time you feel anxious you might try some Box Breathing. It really helps. And as you breathe you just might remember as you breathe in that God is filling you with the Spirit and as you exhale, God is cleansing you through the power of his Son. And if you think of it, you could breathe a little prayer for me, your brothers and sisters in the faith, and this world that God so dearly loves.

Your partner in ministry

Pastor Dave

Christian Education

By Rachel Clendenin

“The clear light that belongs to October was making the landscape radiant.” Florence Bone

October Greetings from the Education Wing! Much like this quote from Florence Bone, the clear light that shines from our kiddos has been making the education wing radiant. It has been great to have their wonderful energy back in the building, learning about God and Jesus!

We are certainly off and running with our kiddos. The Parables have been an over-riding theme in our education this fall. A couple of notes for grown-ups:

- All 3-year-olds through 4th graders need to be signed out. Thank you for understanding and helping us keep all of our kiddos safe!
- Calendars are available with the lesson of each week, the days off, singing, and general programming! Please feel free to pick one up!

Rt. 56 & Middle School Merge is off to a great start! Our youth assisted with a service project for the Diamond Dinner and played some super fun games – ask them about “Sardines”. Please remember our time is from 6:30-8:00pm, and to bring a pre-packaged snack to share on our snack bar! Thank you!

A HUGE thank you to all of our fantastic volunteers in our Christian Education Program! Please, give them a pat on the back, and pray for them. To help, offer to teach your child, your grandchild, niece, nephew, or friend’s child’s class, even once a month to give these amazing volunteers a break! It would mean the world to us!

Dates to Note!

Parents, please attend with your student during church school (at 9:30am) for Bible Orientation.

Worship Music & Ministry

Praise & Rejoice Choir

I'll bet you love singing in the shower! Bring your talent and come make a joyful noise unto the Lord with the Praise & Rejoice Choir. This teen and adult choir meets every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. to practice. It's a terrific opportunity for fellowship, as well as for singing praises to God.

Under the direction of Tera McDonnell, this group sings for worship an average of two times per month and at many festival worship services. Everyone is welcome to share in this act of praise as we are called to the service of providing music for worship! For more information contact Tera at (605) 496-2016 or see Robbyn in the church office.

Handbell Choirs

The Handbell Choir is under the direction of Bev Splinter and makes beautiful music together, practicing Wednesday evenings at 7:15 p.m. High School age youth and adults are encouraged to join this group. Small groups of ringers from this group also join together at times to provide special music for worship.

The Redeemer Ringers include youth in 7th grade on up. Watch the bulletin for Redeemer Ringer practice times which coincide with their schedule to play in worship. For more information on these Handbell Choirs, contact Bev Splinter at (605) 237-5400 or see Robbyn in the church office.

Updates from Stewardship & Call Committee

"It's raining!"

Our 18-year-old roof has faltered faster than expected. It's already leaking, and this has the potential to interfere with worship and service to our mission. We'd have gotten a closer picture of failed shingles, but going up there to take a picture or fix shingles just speeds up roof failure.

Property and Stewardship committees were waiting until early 2023 to begin a roof campaign, but we must be ready sooner.

It's like our parking lot project of two years ago. We can do this! Church Council and Jodi have created a LCOOR roof fund. Two generous members have already contributed.

We pray that you may be guided to contribute too.

Chuck Langner, LCOOR Property Committee
Todd Decker, LCOOR Stewardship Committee

Call Committee Report

The mission site profile has been completed, and the ELCA Synod Office has begun the process of giving us names of candidates to interview. The call committee is meeting Wednesday evening on October 5 to discuss the format for interviews as we move forward.

Brad Brandsrud, Call Committee Chair

High School Youth served coffee between worship services on September 18.

Dish to Pass

By Twila Schmitt

Anyone ready to think about Christmas yet? How about Advent? One of my favorite Advent memories happened in 1986, shortly after moving to Bemidji, MN. The church there was recruiting families and individuals to submit stories and prayers for their own Advent Devotional booklet. So I did – and it was wonderful to be included! Advent was particularly meaningful and personal that year as I looked forward to each day's words written by my church family.

Fast forward a few more years to Rapid City. We found a new church home on Easter Sunday and shortly after, found out the congregation was looking for a new church secretary. As Christmas approached, the new secretary (me) invited and encouraged reluctant writers to submit Advent devotions for our first local Advent devotional.

Can you guess where this is leading? Our BeFriendsers at LCOOR would like to compile your favorite memories, stories and prayers for our own Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer Advent Devotional. We have complete faith that there are 29 of us who will share stories, memories, poems and prayers.

You don't have to be a published author or English professor to participate! (Although we would welcome your contributions as well!) Think about stories of your past Christmases. What was particularly memorable? Do you have a family tradition you'd like to share? How about a special family prayer?

A signup will be available at the Welcome Center during October – and you'll get to pick the date for your devotion. We'll take them via email (twila@lcoorwatertown.org) or handwritten. Deadline is Sunday, November 6. We look forward to sharing your words of faith with our LCOOR family!
