PASTOR MESSAGE & MILESTONE MINISTRIES

“What is Lent? I mean really, what’s it for?”

This question was posed by a student who was thoroughly concerned that he might be missing the point and the purpose of this season called Lent. We talked for a few minutes about the symbolism of the purple paraments, that Lent means “slow” and it’s a time for joining together to hear the stories of Jesus again. However, the truth is, Lent is also more than this.

- Lent can be thought of in temporal terms. Lent is a time, a countdown, a period, forty days, the long watch that ends the night.
- Lent can be thought of in terms of training. It is a discipline, a struggle, a fast, a commitment, preparation, a training, a scourging of the flesh, a putting-to-death of the flesh. (And who does this putting to death? God, not us.)
- Lent can be imagined in terms of its emotions. Lent is mourning our fallenness, grieving over sin, a season of sadness before the season of joy, a song of sorrow that precedes Easter’s shouts of praise. Lent is the dance of despair and dejection, before Easter’s lively rejoicing.
- Lent can be thought of in terms of truth. In Lent, the masks we wear to protect us from God’s penetrating stare are stripped away. In Lent, our lives are grasped by the power of God’s truth, which first strips us bare of our self-justifying lies, and second assures us that God truly loves us despite our failings.
- Lent can be thought of in terms of clothing. Lent is sackcloth, and Easter is joy (see Psalm 30). Lent is all ashes and the dark attire of death. Easter is a celebration.
- Lent is the bare, late-winter forest, denuded of leaf and life. Easter is the green blade rising from the buried grain.
- Lent is a season of coming in touch with our own sinfulness, need for redemption, and mortal condition. A time to learn -- really learn -- what it is to be dust and ashes.

For those who hunger for something deeper, this season of Lent is a perfect time for individual and communal spiritual renewal. For individuals, Lent is a season to deepen in Christian faith to mature in Christian faith practices. For Christian communities, Lent is a time to grow in fellowship and hospitality. Join us for all these “Lenten things” this season.

Wednesdays 6:30 pm- The worship theme is “The Beatitudes of Promise.”

Sundays 9:30 am- the worship theme follows a video series by Artist, Pastor Paul Oman.

So, invite a friend, make yourself feel comfortable, and together, let’s dig into the meaning of Lent.

DISH TO PASS

Now, it's February! In the frigid temps of a South Dakota winter, it's tempting to hunker down and start complaining -- about everything! I'm hoping that you'll join me (instead) in focusing on ways to keep your spirits bright!

Many years ago, a friend gifted a book that I pull off my bookshelf whenever I feel the need to refresh. It's called "The Art of Abundance," and it begins:

"Always leave enough time in your life to do something that makes you happy, satisfied, even joyous. That has more of an effect on your well-being than any other single factor."

Maybe you already have those "things" you can do that make you happy? Or maybe you've been putting them off "until the kids are grown" or "until retirement?" Maybe you feel that life is too darn busy to fit in one more thing? Then, again, maybe you're looking for something now?

If you keep an eye on the calendar here at church, you'll find several opportunities:

- Attend book club!
- Sign up for craft night!
- Join the quilters!
- Deliver Meals on Wheels!
- Learn to make Prayer Shawls or baptismal afghans!
- Come to Bible Study on Sunday mornings or Wednesday evenings!
- Check out Men's Lunch!
- Dine together following first Saturday's worship!
- Try Chair Yoga!
- Enjoy our Wednesday Family meal!
- Sing with the choir or ring hand bells!

And if you don't see something on the calendar that sparks your interest, make time to stop by the office and chat. There are ministries that go on behind the scenes that might be just the right fit for you!

"A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit makes you feel dry down to your very bones."
– Proverbs 17:22

Let's work together through these coming winter months to keep our spirits bright!

We still have a few spots open!!

Our preschool offers a Monday-Thursday 8:30-11:30 Pre-Kindergarten (4/5 year old) program. It is open to anyone not just church members.
